Privacy Policy

Effective Date: April 2025

This Privacy Policy describes how information is handled in connection with the use of this application/service.

We do not collect, store, process, or share any personal data or personally identifiable information from users. The application does not require user registration and does not request or retain any information that can be used to identify an individual.

Any data that may be processed is strictly limited to anonymous, aggregated analytics information used solely to monitor general performance, improve functionality, and enhance overall user experience. Such analytics data does not identify, relate to, describe, or associate with any specific individual.

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer any user-related information to third parties.
